Forty-two years ago, a small group of alcoholics, pooling their resources, made a pre-arranged overnight stop in a small Utah town on their way to the 1975 International Convention in Denver, Colorado. They found the people in town so accommodating and friendly and the natural beauty and atmosphere so inviting, they decided to return the following year to camp and share with one another over the Labor Day Weekend. This tradition has continued over the years and the magic of that first overnight stop is still happening every Labor Day Weekend in beautiful BEAVER, UTAH!!
